MAKE TRAVEL MATTER

Plymouth: Visit Pilgrim Hall Museum, the oldest continuously operating public museum in the country and America's museum of Pilgrim possessions. Meet a direct descendant of the Mayflower party that landed on America's shores in 1620 and hear their family stories.

INSIGHT EXPERIENCE

Newport: Jump onboard the Adirondack II, an 80-foot schooner sailing ship and cruise around the coastline.

INSIGHT CHOICE

Boston: Step through the hallowed gates and enter Fenway Park. Home to the nine-time World Series winning Boston Red Sox since 1912, Fenway is the oldest baseball stadium in America. Enjoy an in depth one-hour guided tour of the legendary sports history that has taken place here, with a chance to visit the press box, view memorabilia, and sit in the fabled 'Green Monster' overlooking left field. Alternatively, you may choose to visit the Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum, a lavish and accurate reconstruction of a 15th-century Venetian palace, including an exquisite interior courtyard that boasts an array of blossomed flowers all year round. Every item in the 2,500-piece collection, spanning European, Asian and Islamic art is meticulously placed according to Gardner's personal instructions. Also on display are the empty frames that once held priceless works of art stolen during the infamous 1990 theft, the largest in American history.

POST TRIP CRUISE OPTIONDAYS 9 - 16 YOUR CANADA & NEW ENGLAND DISCOVERY CRUISE:

Welcome to your Holland America Line Canada & New England Discovery cruise for a voyage along the Canadian and New England coasts. Continue north to Bar Harbor, a quintessential New England coastal town on Mount Desert Island that serves as the gateway to Acadia National Park. Next, you'll head to Halifax, a maritime destination which offers a perfect mix of sea breezes and cultural charm. Cruise past the Highlands of Nova Scotia to the port of Sydney, where lighthouses stand on cliff-side ledges and tiny villages huddle in rocky inlets. Call in at Charlottetown where red double-decker buses motor along streets lined with regal Victorian houses. The Gulf of Saint Lawrence fringes the shores of half the provinces of Canada and is defined by stunning coastline and beautiful islands, including Prince Edward Island and the Magdalen Islands. Continue on to Quebec City. Set atop sheer cliffs and with a strong French influence both in its culture and architecture, this elegant city comes with plenty of charm. As you travel along this nearly 1,200-kilometre (750-mile) portion of the St. Lawrence River, witness its showcase of lighthouses, old fishing villages and exciting landscapes. Your trip ends in the old-world French city of Montreal. Arrival in port is at approximately 9:30 am.
